STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 17, 1852.

A message was received from the House of Commons proposing to vote for U. S. Senator, this day at 12 o'clock. Agreed to.

Mr. Steele presented a memorial from citizens of North Carolina, praying for the passage of an act to abolish the liquor traffic.

Mr. Steele, in presenting the memorial, said in substance,

I present this memorial simply because it is respectful in its character, and is signed by a number of the good citizens in all portions of the State. I felt it to be my duty, therefore, to lay their petition before the Senate. I take this occasion to state, however, to the Senate, that I would not vote to carry out the prayer of the memorialists; I think it would do more harm than good; and I hope, that if a bill is presented embodying the views set forth, that it will not become a law.

Mr. Caldwell moved that the memorial be not received.

He said, in substance, that he was opposed to any legislation whatever, on this subject. He did not believe that any one had a right to memorialize this Legislature, praying for a law to be enacted, prohibiting our citizens from putting their grain in any shape they might choose, before bringing it into market. He said, that on the subject of Temperance, these memorialists were fanatics; and they had just as much right to memorialize this Legislature against Slavery, as a nuisance. He was surprised that the gentleman should present a paper to this House, which he himself will not support, and against which he calls upon Senators to vote.

Mr. Steele said he did not understand the Senator in his application, perhaps, of the word fanatic; he would take occasion to say, that the signers were honorable men, and as free from fanaticism as the gentleman himself.

Mr. Caldwell said in reply, that the memorial to take away or restrict the rights of the people, if carried out were fanatical in their tendencies; and showed, to his mind, that the object was to control popular elections. He said he had no doubt but that the signers were honorable men, but on this subject he insisted they were fanatics. He said he was as good a Temperance man as any of the advocates of the memorial—he was friendly to the Temperance cause, but was opposed to the present movement, for reasons assigned.

Mr. Brogden spoke against the memorial and concurred in the proposition of the Senator from Mecklenburg, not to receive it.

Mr. Kelly spoke in favor of the reception of the memorial—it was a right, the citizens had, to memorialize the Legislature for the suppression of any nuisance.

Mr. Clark moved to lay the memorial and the motion on the table. He regretted that at this late period of the session this exciting subject had been brought before the Senate; he said the Clerks' table was loaded with public bills and unfinished business highly important, and must be acted on this session; and but a few days now remained of the session—not enough to discuss and mature this business now before them. He said from the feeling now manifested, it was apparent with what feeling it would be discussed, and justice to public business, as well as to the memorial, forbid any action now being taken on it. He did not move to lay on the table from any disrespect to the memorialists, or to any one, but as the only means of disposing of the business already before the Senate.

Mr. McCleese called for the yeas and nays; and the Senate voted as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Albritton, Barrow, Berry, Bower, Boyd, Brogden, Bunting, Bynum, Caldwell, Clark, Collins, Cowper, Cunningham, Drake, Hargrave, Hoke, Jones of Wake, Lillington, Shaw, Speight, Ward, Walton and Withers—23.

NAYS—Messrs. Albright, Arendell, Cannady, Gilmer, Herring, Jones of Perquimons, Joyner, Kelly, Kerr, Lane, McCleese, McDowell, McMillan, Mitchell, Murray, Parks, Person, Richardson, Steele, Thompson, Washington, Willey and Woodfin—23.

There being 23 yeas and 23 nays, the Speaker voted with the yeas, and the memorial was laid on the table.

The Speaker asked the indulgence of the Senate a moment—he desired that his vote should not be misunderstood, and stated as his reasons for voting to lay on the table that the session was fast approaching its end; but a few days, according to the joint order of the two Houses, remained, and no reasonable hope or expectation could be entertained by any member that any bill in response to the prayer of the memorialists could be matured in the short time now left for deliberation, especially on so exciting a topic. Therefore, to give an opportunity to the petitioners to bring the matter at an early day before the next session of the General Assembly, he had voted to lay on the table.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the Senate proceeded to vote for U. S. Senator.

The name of Mr. Rayner was withdrawn, and that of Mr. Woodfin put in nomination.

For Mr. Dobbin—Messrs. Speaker, Barrow, Berry, Bower, Boyd, Brogden, Bunting, Caldwell, Canady, Clark, Collins, Cunningham, Drake, Hargrave, Herring, Hoke, W. Jones, Kerr, McDowell, McMillan, Person, Shaw, Speight, Thomas, Ward and Withers—26.

For Mr. Woodfin—Messrs. Albright, Albritton, Arendell, Bynum, Cowper, Gilmer, T. F. Jones, Joyner, Kelly, Lane, Lillington, McCleese, Mitchell, Murray, Palmer, Parks, Steele, Thompson, Washington and Willey—20.

Mr. Woodfin voted for Mr. Gilmer.

Mr. Watson voted for Mr. Shepard.

The hour having arrived, the Senate proceeded to vote for an Attorney General.

Mr. Eaton received 10 votes; Mr. Ransom 22; Mr. Busbee 6; Mr. Rogers 4; Mr. Lewis 1; Mr. Singletary 2.

Mr. Washington presented a memorial, which was referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Hargrave offered a resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Davidson.

The Senate proceeded to vote for a Solicitor of the 6th Judicial Circut, in pursuance of a joint resolution:

For Mr. Lander—Messrs. Speaker, Barrow, Berry, Bower, Boyd, Brogden, Bunting, Caldwell, Cannady, Clark, Collins, Drake, Hargrave, Herring, Hoke, Jones of Wake, Kerr, McDowell, McMillan, Person, Shaw, Speight, Thomas, Ward, Watson and Withers.

For Mr. W. P. Bynum—Messrs. Albright, Albritton, Arendell, Bynum, Cowper, Gilmer, T. F. Jones, Joyner, Kelly, Lane, Lillington, McCleese, Mitchell, Murray, Palmer, Parks, Steele, Thompson, Washington and Woodfin.

Mr. Saunders proceeded to address the House in a long and able speech, during which he took occasion to defend himself from the attacks recently made upon him by certain newspapers in Virginia and letter-writers in Washington, whom he denounced, admitting at the same time the right and the duty of the press of his own State to criticize his public course. He alluded to his position upon the public lands, declaring that if Gen. Pierce would put his veto upon the wasteful squandering of those lands he was ready to stand by him; but he did not believe that he would interpose the veto, and therefore he (Mr. S.) was in favor of the distribution of the lands. He concluded with a prayer for the prosperity of his State, and took his seat amid much applause.

Mr. Webb offered an amendment providing for the extension of the Spartanburg railroad to connect with the Western extension of the Central road and addressed the House in favor of it until 1 o'clock, when the House proceeded to MONDAY, Dec. 20, 1852.

Mr. Clark offered a resolution proposing to rescind the joint resolution to adjourn on Wednesday next, and that the day of adjournment be fixed for Saturday, 25th instant.

He remarked that, from the amount of business now before the Senate, and the mass of bills to come from the House of Commons, he had no idea that, between this day and Wednesday, it could be dispatched; and he was disposed to do the business which he had pledged himself to do before coming to the Senate.

Mr. Joyner objected to the resolution; he said he had never seen so few bills on the Clerk's table two days before the adjournment.

Mr. Bynum objected to the resolution; he could not see why it was necessary to postpone the day of adjournment unless it was to effect some of the elections which had not been made.

Mr. Caldwell said he would vote for the resolution to rescind, and he would tell the Senator, and the other side of the house, that he was willing to stay here until a Senator was made, and they might prepare themselves for the hotest fight on to-morrow that they have had this session. The Democrats could not elect a Democrat, and the Whigs would not. On to-morrow, with one of their own men, a Western man—Thomas L. Clingman—the fight would be made.

Mr. Thompson said if the fight was to be a fair one he had no objection to it—if beaten fairly he would most cheerfully submit; but he did object to the postponement in order to take advantage of absentees. He said that after the balloting was had on to-morrow he was willing to postpone indefinitely the subject of an election for the present session.

Mr. Caldwell, in reply, said that if an election could not be effected to-morrow he did not believe it could be done this session, and for himself [he would not undertake to speak for his party] he was willing to the indefinite postponement.

Mr. Bynum moved to lay on the table, which motion prevailed.

Mr. Boyd, from the committee, to wait on the Governor, reported, that his Excellency would appear before the two Houses of the General Assembly, on Wednesday next, at 12 o'clock, to take the oaths of office.

The motion then prevailed.

THE STANDARD

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 22, 1852.

THE LEGISLATURE.

It is now considered certain that this body will not adjourn before Thursday or Friday. There is a good deal of business still to be transacted. No final action has yet been had upon the Senatorial and Congressional Districts. The bills have been re-committed to Committees, and reports are expected to-day, Tuesday. Of course the Assembly will not adjourn without perfecting and passing these bills.

Gov. Reid is to be inaugurated on Wednesday the 22d, the day heretofore fixed for adjournment.

The following officers are still to be elected: Senator, Superior Court Judge, seven Councillors of State, and two Trustees of the University.

The Assembly has been in session eighty days, from the 4th of October to the 22d December inclusive.

We refer our readers to our legislative head for the proceedings in detail.

CHRISTMAS.

In order to give those employed in our office the privilege of participating in the Christmas Holidays, no paper will be issued on Saturday next, Christmas day.

Our indulgent readers—and they are all so—will no doubt be satisfied with this omission, under the circumstances, of one Semi-Weekly issue.

We tender to our readers and friends, in advance, the compliments of the season. May it be a merry and a happy one to all; and may no cloud fall upon any, during the coming year, which shall not be touched and brightened by the beams of Hope and Mercy!

THE SENATORSHIP.

The two Houses of the Assembly of this State voted again on Friday last for a Senator of the United States in place of Mr. Mangum. No election. Mr. Dobbin, the Democratic nominee, received 80 votes, and lacked but two votes of an election. The bulk of the Whig party voted for Mr. N. W. Woodfin, of Buncombe.

Two Whigs—Messrs. Holeman and Blow—voted for Mr. Dobbin on this occasion; but Messrs. Cotten and Watson voted for Mr. Shepard, and Mr Love for Mr. J. R. J. Daniel. Two of these three Democrats could have secured Mr. Dobbin's election.

The two Houses, it is understood, will vote again to-day, Tuesday.

Mr. Dobbin, we have no hesitation in saying, is the choice of a large majority of the party in the State; and such is his personal popularity that, but for the simple fact of his being the Democratic nominee, he would, in all probability, have been elected ere this by Whig votes.

We sincerely hope that the Democrats and the States Rights men combined in the Assembly, will see to it, at all hazards, that Mr. Woodfin is not elected. We have one Consolidationist too many already in the Senate from North Carolina.

Whatever the result may be, we shall claim the right, in the course of a week or so, of expressing our views freely and fully upon past and present events connected with this election.

MARINER'S CHURCH, WILMINGTON.

A very large audience assembled in the Commons Hall, in this City, on Sabbath evening last, to hear addresses from distinguished gentlemen in behalf of the effort now making to raise funds to erect a Church for the sailors in Wilmington.

On motion of Hon. D. L. Swain the Hon. James C. Dobbin was called to preside. Mr. Dobbin explained the object of the meeting, after which addresses were delived by Robert Strange, Jr., of New Hanover, Samuel P. Hill, Esq., of Caswell, Gen. R. M. Saunders, of Wake, and the Rev. Dr. Brigham, of New York—all of whom spoke in forcible and impressive terms of the character and wants of our seamen, and of the importance of carrying out the benevolent object contemplated.

The intelligent Agent, Rev. Mr. Langdon, is pressing this cause with much enthusiasm; and we have no doubt that success will crown his efforts.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

On Friday last M. W. Ransom, Esq. of Warren, was elected by the Legislature Attorney General of the State; and on the same day William Lander, Esq. of Lincoln, was elected Solicitor for the 6th Judicial Circuit.

On the same day Samuel P. Hill, Esq. of Caswell, was elected a Trustee of the University of North Carolina.

And on Saturday, A. W. Burton, Esq. of Cleaveland, was elected Solicitor for the 7th Judicial Circuit.

For the vote, see proceedings.

☞ The Petersburg Intelligencer thus notices the recent election for Attorney General in this State: "In noticing the election of M. W. Ransom, Esq., as Attorney General of North Carolina, we cannot refrain from paying a tribute to the worth of his predecessor, William Eaton, jr., Esq., who most faithfully and ably discharged the duties of that station during his term of service. Entertaining for Mr. Ransom the highest respect, and being well assured that he will make a good officer, we must nevertheless accord to Mr. Eaton what is strictly his due—the merit of being one of the best officers and best men we know. We have known him well for many years, and all we ever did know of him was, in every particular, creditable to him; and it is a compliment of which Mr. Ransom may well be proud to have defeated such a man in a Democratic Legislature.

☞ Gen. Pierce's official majority in Florida is 1,443.

NORTH CAROLINA BIBLE SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of this Society was held in the Presbyterian Church, in this City, on Sunday evening last. In the absence of the President of the Society, the Hon. Duncan Cameron, the Hon. D. L. Swain, one of the Vice Presidents, took the Chair.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. T. W. Tobey, after which the Rev. Peter Doub read a portion of the Scriptures.

Gov. Swain referred in a touching manner to the physical prostration of the venerable President of the Society, which prevented his attendance at the meeting; and he observed, in the course of his remarks, that he had no doubt that Judge Cameron looked upon his long connexion with this Society with more pleasure than upon all the offices, important and distinguished as they had been, which he had ever filled.

The Rev. Mr. Deruewelle, State agent of the Society, addressed the meeting, giving quite an interesting account of his labors in distributing among the people the word of God. He was followed by the Rev. Dr. Brigham, Secretary of the American Bible Society, who spoke for nearly an hour in relation to the operations of the Society and the vast benefits conferred by it in distributing the Bible both in this and other countries. Dr. Brigham's remarks were replete with most interesting facts and statistics, which we regret our lack of space to present to our readers.

The Rev. Dr. Lacy then called upon gentlemen, members of the Legislature present, to entertain the Society with remarks; whereupon the Hon. James C. Dobbin took the floor and spoke for half an hour in his most eloquent and impressive manner on the subject of the Bible, its elevating and refining influence upon mankind, and the importance of giving to it the fullest and widest dissemination. He was followed by Samuel F. Phillips, Esq., who, though evidently unprepared for the call, spoke with his accustomed force and good sense upon the great cause to sustain and advance which the meeting had been assembled.

Gov. Swain then addressed the meeting. He produced and read some documents, prepared and issued by the Congress during our revolutionary struggle, showing the feeling of dependence upon Almighty God which possessed the minds and characterized the conduct of our forefathers; and he attributed to this feeling—to this trust in an overruling Power—to this dependence upon Divine aid, the triumph which crowned our arms in that great struggle. He said our liberties were bottomed on the Bible, and they could not endure if the Bible should cease to be circulated and read. Gov. Swain spoke for some time in his best manner; and when he had concluded, and after benediction by the Rev. Dr. Brigham, the meeting adjourned.

We are gratified to learn that there is a growing interest in the Bible cause, and that the prospect of good from the operations of the Society is constantly widening and expanding. It is a cause which should command the contributions and enlist the efforts of all.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of South Carolina adjourned on the 16th, after passing the appropriation of $1,250-000 for the construction of the Blue Ridge Rail Road.

It seems that the desire for new Banks is quite as strong in South Carolina as in this State. A Columbia Correspondent of the Mercury says:

"In the House, to-night, the Planters and Mechanic's Bank, the Commercial Bank, and the Union Bank, were re-chartered and eight other banks incorporated. The list is as follows, with their respective capitals: The People's Bank of Charleston, $1600-000; the Exchange Bank of Columbia, $500,000; the Bank of Sumter, $300,000; the Bank of Anderson, $200,000; the Bank of Newberry, $200,000; the Bank of Winnsboro' $200,000; the Bank of Chester, $200,000.

Here is a brood for you. Fortunately the chickens are mostly of a small breed, bantams if you choose. If it were at all likely that they would spring into operation, the effect upon the currency of the State might be most serious. But the restrictions put upon them by the bill, together with other considerations, will probably confine the existence of the majority of them to paper. The bill was a wholesale concession, as Mr. Hunt expressed it, to the harmless ambition of little villages.

The passage of the bill is due to another fact, namely, the pressure of business upon the House. It was so stated in debate, and there can be no doubt but that a less hasty legislation, would have resulted in a measure more worthy of the body from whence it emanated, and better fitted to abide the tests of experience."

THE CALORIC SHIP ERICSSON.—Successful Trial Trip to Baltimore. An experimental trial of the caloric ship Ericsson, now lying at Williamsburg, N. Y., took place on Wednesday, fire having been applied to the furnaces for the first time, and resulted in the triumphant success of the experiment. At the start, the wheels made three turns per minute, and shortly afterwards reached five turns per minute, at which speed she continued working for several hours, and would be kept in motion the whole of Wednesday night. This is much more than the most ardent of the friends of the invention had reason to expect The Herald says:

As the experiment was made at the dock, with the vessel made fast, the opposition of the water was naturally much greater than if she had been under way. Five turns, when stationary, are said to be equal to eleven or twelve when under way, producing from ten to eleven miles per hour, a rate of speed very rarely exceeded by first class steamships.

We are informed by a gentleman who was on board that the machinery worked to admiration, the smoothness and regularity of its movements being unsurpassed by even well-tried engines. It is contemplated to keep the wheels in motion for two or three days, to satisfy, by occular demonstration, the great curiosity in the minds of the public regarding the matter, although it was not contemplated to set her at work at present, as she is far from being considered in a complete state. We understand she will not be ready for her trial trip for two or three weeks yet, it being determined to have her in a perfectly complete state when she leaves the harbor, when it is intended to take her to Baltimore and probably to one or two other cities, in order to give her a thoroughly satisfactory trial before commencing her voyage to Europe.

THE POPULAR VOTE. The whole number of votes cast at the late presidential election was about 2,900,-000. Gen. Pierce's plurality over Scott is about 200,000, and his majority over Scott and Hale is between 50,000 and 60,000. His plurality in the New England States is about 10,000, in the other free States about 115,000, and in the slave States (exclusive of South Carolina) about 72,000.

New Hampshire Democrat.

PORK PACKING. Thirteen thousand head of hogs have been contracted for by Warren & Co., of Wheeling, Va., who are about establishing there an extensive pork establishment. It is stated that contracts have been made by the dealers of Madison, Indiana, for the delivery of 115,000 head of hogs, all of which, says the Courier, will be killed and packed there. Ninety-eight thousand is the greatest number that has ever been packed in that city in one season.

FREE SUFFRAGE—MR. EDWARDS.

The Raleigh Register, speaking of the defeat of the Free Suffrage bill in the Senate, makes the following declaration:

"It is well known that the Senator from Warren, (Mr. Edwards,) was elected on the ground of his opposition to this measure. He and his friends, no doubt as true "Democrats" as any in the State, made that the main issue in the campaign."

Now, with all deference to the opinion of the Register, we must say that, in the above assertion, he is mistaken. That the friends of Mr. Edwards who first started in the movement to solicit him to become a candidate for the Senate, did it because of his known opposition to Free Suffrage, we do not deny, but this was not the case with all who supported him in the election. Some weeks previous to the election, a letter was gotten up by anti-Free Suffrage Democrats and Whigs, soliciting Mr. Edwards to become a candidate for the Senate. This letter was circulated throughout the county, and we know that many persons signed it who are and always have been strongly in favor of Free Suffrage. Why they did it we cannot say; but it is so. After Gen. Hawkins became a candidate, (which he did upon strong solicitation and contrary to the expectation of a great many,) there were those who, agreeing with him upon the question of Free Suffrage, would have voted for him, but considered themselves pledged to the support of Mr. Edwards, after having solicited him to become a candidate.

It is very certain that there was no direct and open issue made on the subject during the campaign; for Mr. Edwards was out of the County during the whole time, and consequently did not discusss the question before the people, and his friends, in urging his claims, certainly did not press his opposition to Free Suffrage as a reason for his election on all whom they approached. These things being so, we feel warrented in saying that Mr. Edwards was not elected "on the ground of his opposition to the measure," and hence the assertion we have made heretofore, that "Warren County—even the Freeholders of Warren County—are in favor of Free Suffrage."

We may be mistaken in our views and opinions in regard to the feeling of the freeholders in the County on the subject, but there is one fact upon which we know we are not mistaken, and that is, that several persons who signed the letter of Mr. Edwards, asking him to become a candidate, and who afterwards voted for him, openly professed to be in favor of Free Suffrage, and some of them went so far as to propose holding a meeting some time after the election to instruct him to vote for it in the Senate when it should come up.

MARKETS.

COTTON. On Wednesday after the Arctic sailed, speculators continued to operate in the cotton market, and prices closed firm. On Thursday and Friday the market was steady but quiet. Sales on Wednesday of 10,000 bales, of which 6,000 were to speculators. Sales on Thursday of 6,000 bales.

Revolution in Tobasco—Two Battles Fought—400 Mexican Troops Killed—Towns Captured, &c.

Capt. Cousins, of the brig Captain John, who arrived at New York on Monday, from Tabasco, whence he sailed on the 21st ult., reports that a civil war had broken out in that place, in which a large number of the citizens opposed the present government. Two battles had been already fought in which four hundred of the Mexican soldiers were killed. The revolutionists had captured two small towns.

The streets of the city of Tabasco were overflowed, and the water was from two to three feet deep on the floor of the custom house. Boats could easily proceed up the principal streets.

The revolutionary excitement was very great, and it was supposed that as soon as the water receded, there would be a general outbreak in the place.

A detachment of Mexican troops was shortly expected there, and it was surmised that they would meet with a much warmer reception than they anticipated.

Outrageous Robbery.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 14. Hooker C. Hicks, the collector of customs of Vienna, Dorchester county, Md., whilst passing along Lombard street near South, at half-past five o'clock this evening, had a rope thrown around his neck and was dragged into an alley by three men, and robbed of three thousand five hundred dollars in gold, twelve hundred in Baltimore notes, and a draft for fourteen hundred on New York, and his watch. At the same instant a handful of lime was thrown into his mouth and eyes, strangling and blinding him. The robbers escaped before he could recover and give the alarm. His pockets were all cut open, and his flesh grazed with the knife.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT. On Monday, the first bound volume of the annual Executive communications to Congress, made to that body at the commencement of the present session, was issued from the Union office and laid upon the tables of the members. The printing is very promptly and neatly executed—shewing the great advantages of the present over the contract system.

NORTH CAROLINA SMALL NOTES. Since the explosion of the shinplaster system in the District of Columbia, the want of small notes has been gradually supplied by North Carolina, until her small notes nearly supply our necessities in this behalf. Well, if our own State will not give its Banks the profits of this circulation, we had rather see our neighbors of the "Old North" derive the profits of supplying us than any body else. Petersburg Intelligencer.

OXFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

MR. EDITOR: The examination of the young ladies of the Oxford Female College took place on the 29th and 30th ultimo. I had the good fortune to be present, and was so much pleased with what I saw and heard that I have determined to give you, and through you, if you please, the numerous readers of your excellent paper, some few of the many interesting incidents of the occasion. The people of our State are daily becoming fully sensible of the vital importance of educating their daughters; there was a time, I remember well, when the facilities in North Carolina for educating girls were few and difficult of access, but now, thanks to the public spirit of this age of progress and of blessings, the good old North State contains within her boundaries many excellent institutions for the culture of the female mind, and among them the Oxford Female College occupies already a very prominent position, which, auguring from its present popularity and success, it will long continue to maintain; of this any one might have been convinced by observing the course at the late examination of its pupils. The College is under the immediate care and control of the Rev. Dr. Wait, a gentleman extensively known and alike distinguished for his profound learning, polished urbanity, and exalted piety. Under his auspices the College will extend her influence, and his name is a high assurance to the public that the institution is managed with unexceptionable skill, and consummate propriety and success. The proficiency exhibited by all the classes was the subject of general remark and enthusiastic commendation. I was particularly struck with the examination of a class of small girls on the Latin Reader. the trial was through, and the critical knowlege of the rudiments of the language which they displayed, clearly evinced that they had received the benefit of no ordinary instruction. The examination upon the important and useful science of Physiology was to me equally novel and interesting. The excellent attainments of the young ladies in each of the branches of study was truly gratifying to the lovers of learning, and the source, no doubt, of great satisfaction to themselves and of peculiar delight to their parents and friends. I will not trouble you by enumerating each class, or the many points of excellence apparent in all, but I cannot forego the pleasure of expressing my unbounded admiration for the success which the young ladies of the College have achieved in the study of Mathematics. Their intimate acquaintance with this department of the course was convincing evidence of thorough instruction and superior scholorship; at the same time the elegance of language and precision of expression, combined with the quiet ease and grace of manner employed by them in explaining even some of the most difficult problems in Quadratic Equations, totally dispelled all apprehensions of any inconvenience which might arise from the severity of the science.

The regular, orderly and systematic method with which the entire exercises of this interesting occasion were conducted was no less agreeable than conspicuous to the crowd of attentive spectators; the examinations were relieved at intervals with performances on the Piano Forte, which regaled the audience with music that aroused the pleasant emotions of the soul, while it gave to the ear the softest notes of "sweetest melody."

The College buildings, admirably adapted for every convenience, are located on an eminence in the southern portion of the town, sufficiently removed from the throughfares of business. The room in which the examinations are conducted is spacious, very comfortable, and well arranged to accomplish its purpose; from any point of view the College presents a grand and beautful appearance. Oxford can boast of as much beauty and as many advantages as any town in the State. There are here two other schools, the Male and Female Academies, both conducted with ability, and enjoying the public confidence and favor. The trade and population of the place are rapidly increasing, and the morality and refinement of the society cannot be surpassed in the world.

You see, Mr. Editor, I have conceived a very favorable impression of Oxford, and certainly no one who visits the place can fail to be pleased. The education of females is of prime importance to every republic, and therefore let every patriot urge the importance of the sacred cause, that the daughters of our State may become "polished as the pillars of the temple." I have always felt a deep interest in this subject, because I know woman forms, in a great degree, the character of man; educate the females and we may entertain high hopes of a future day, when every American mother may point to her children and say, with the Roman mother of the Gracchi, "these are my jewels." But as I did not, when I commenced, intend to speak particularly of the importance of female education, and have probably said already more than enough, I will close these desultory observations by bespeaking for the Oxford Female College, that which I doubt not it will enjoy, a long and brilliant career of success.

A LOOKER ON IN VENICE.

"The weakest part of an alligator is his stomach. Man is an alligator."

Fact! give him enough to eat and you are sure of him! Make a straight path from the front door to the dinner table, kick the children out of his way; put his knife, fork, goblet, and napkin where he won't lose a minute in getting 'em; then set his favorite dish before him, and don't wink till he has eaten his way through it and then's your time, hasten to ask for half his kingdom, or the whole of it; keep your alligator tame with victuals my dear and his bite will never be dangerous. But—if you have a villanious cook (and don't know how to cook yourself,) you may be a Venus, intellectual as Madame de Steal, and as chaste as Diana—but you will be chased out of his heat—your matrimonial death warrant is signed, sealed and delivered; you can take your piano for firewood, and your French books for kindling, and study how to make the pot boil, if you don't want a divorce quicker than you got your license! I know a man who is bound to his wife by no other tie on earth than her good dinners! he always adores her at dinner time! Whenever he gets savage, she runs to the pantry and gets him something to eat, and he is as quiet as a lamb till the next feeding time.

A SOUND CIRCULATION. We agree with the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, that a subject which requires the immediate attention of Congress, is that of our silver currency, which has been inconveniently scarce. As we have frequently urged, the market value of silver prevents its offer for coinage by depositors, while the same cause prohibits the Mint from purchasing it. There is no reasonable objection to a reduction of the standard weight of the silver coin to such an extent as to enable the Directors of the Mint, without loss, to supply the wants of the community. If this measure were separated from the seignorage upon gold coin, and other questions which embarrassed the bill before Congress at its last session, it would secure almost unanimous approval, and afford a great relief to the whole country. The present standard weight of the silver dollar is 412½ grains. If coin, representing fractional parts of a dollar, were allowed at the rate of 380 grains—halves, quarters, dimes, and half-dimes, could be issued from silver purchased at its market value, and become plenty for the purposes of change, without damage to a single interest throughout the whole of the Confederacy. Such coin should be receivable for duties, which would prevent an over issue by the government, and it would take the place now literally vacant, in the wants of all classes of the people.

FRENCH ANNEXATION OF MEXICAN TERRITORY. One of the most noticeable and significant of events just now, and of which further particulars are given in our telegraphic column this morning, is the defeat of the Mexican General Blanco in the State of Sonora by the French Count Rousset Boulbot and his adherents, consisting of French emigrants, Indians, &c., with the addition that the conquerer has proclaimed Sonora independent and annexed to France.

The government of France it is known, has been for some time encouraging and assisting the emigration of its citizens to California, who have mostly gone thence into the Mexican State of Sonora, and the result is as stated. It seems most probable, however, that the Count's annexation proclamation is only an act of policy resorted to with the hope of fortifying himself in his position and flattering his countrymen at home into sustaining him therein. Any party having the Federal power in Mexico, will of course feel itself bound to resist this "dismemberment of the Republic," as its first requisite for retaining authority. A prominent Mexican Gandasa, it will be seen, co-operates with the French adventurer.

DIED,

In Quitman, Texas, on the 14th of November last, Mrs. ALEY A. RICE, formerly of North Carolina, and consort of William D. Rice, of Alabama. We knew her and loved her well. Her virtues are enshrined in the hearts of her kindred. What can be more touching or more justly testify her great excellence, than these few lines, received from her bereaved husband: "My Aley is no more! I am ruined—undone forever! The only being that could console me on earth, has passed away; but she died happy."

"There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there;
There is no fireside, howso'er defended,
But has one vacant chair." [Cor.

At his residence in Orange, on the 7th instant, the Hon. JAMES S. SMITH, M. D., in the 66th year of his age.

The deceased was distinguished for great vigor of intellect and energy of disposition. In early life he devoted himself to the science of Medicine, became eminent in his profession, and for many years received a very lucrative and extensive practice. In his death the Medical profession has lost one of its brighest ornaments in this State, and the community at large a most useful and valuable citizen. He was was also listinguished as a Politician, was a very forcible and effective speaker, was honored with the confidence of the people in being selected a representative to Congress, a member of the General Assembly, and a delegate to the Convention which amended our State Constitution; all of which trusts he discharged with great satisfaction to his constituents. He bore his last illness with great patience and resignation; made a profession of religion some time before his death, and attached himself to the Episcopal Church. He retained his faculties unclouded to the last; was sensible of his approaching dissolution, and expressed great confidence of his acceptance with God, and of a glorious immortality beyond the grave.

Quinton Utley's Tooth-Ache Drops.

FOR THE CURE O. THE TOOTHACHE.

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th Century!

FROM the numerous applications I have had for the above preparation, for the last few months, the uniform success which has attended its use, its salutary effects, its power to give immediate relief in the severest cases of Toothache, I have been induced to offer it those who may be afflicted; with the utmost confidence in its virtue, and the full belief that it will subdue and give entire relief to the severest toothache without the slightest injury to the tooth. I have got (and can get) numerous testimonials of its efficacy—some from distinguished gentlemen, and all from as reliable persons as are in the State, a publication of which I deem unnecessary at this time, as one of these Drops when tried in an aching tooth will be worth more to the manufacturer and the patient, than all the certificates from great men that could be procured.

The preparation is known only to myself. Every phial is carefully put up by my own hands in the City of Raleigh and labelled with directions for use, and may be found at IRA BECKWITH'S Store, on Fayetteville St. a few doors North of the Yarbrough House, and opposite Lawrence's Hotel, where it will be constantly kept for sale either by the wholesale or retail. Also for sale by the retail at Jone's Drug Store, Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., and at Andrew Bett's Store, Wake County, N. C. Retail price 50 cts. per Bottle—liberal deduction made when taken by the quantity.

To all who may have the toothache—try it, and then it will need no puffing.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to by Mr. Beckwith or myself.

NOVELTY WORKS,

WEST ST., RALEIGH, NORTH-CAROLINA,

SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR,

BUILDER OF

Steam Engines & General Machinist.

THE above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.

Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.

The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:

AUBRY, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.

Mr. SILAS BURNS,

Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The ENGINE, as to FINISH and STRENGTH, PERFORMANCE and DURABILITY, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The MILLS run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot in 3½ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes two many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,

JONES & BARBEE.

"Eagle Hotel," Chapel Hill, for Sale

THE Proprietress of this well known and profitable establishment, having realized a sufficient income to warrant her in resuming the quiet of a private life, offers to the public generally the opportunity of bidding for its advantages.

The citizens of the State are so well acquainted with the advantages of its position, that but few remarks are necessary to complete their information.

The Hotel itself possesses all the requirments of room and comfort, which its purchasers can desire. It has capacity for the accommodation of one hundred and fifty boarders, and the recent and rapid growth of the University, adjacent, makes it an easy matterto possess such or even a greater number of students.

In addition to this, the frequent travel through Chapel Hill gives the Hotel, (being the only one in the place) a transient custom equal to any in the State.

The lots and stables adjoining are extensive and commodious, and the country-market supplies abundantly and on profitable terms much of its provisions.

The terms of sale require one third of the price to be paid on taking possession. A note, with safe security and time of payment suited to the convenience of the purchaser, are the reasonable demands for the remainder.

If further information be desired concerning the inducements to purchase, the President of the University or any other resident of the village, will furnish it.

Possession can be obtained at any time, after the 1st of May. Apply to ANNE S. HILLIARD.
